

SOOTHE

ACEMANNAN HYDROGEL

A REFRESHING BREAKTHROUGH IN NATURAL SKIN RELIEF

At the heart of nature's most powerful damaged skin relief lies Aloe vera, a time-tested botanical known for its soothing and restorative properties. Scientists discovered that the molecule in fresh Aloe vera gel responsible for its historically acclaimed reputation was a polysaccharide that was named, Acemannan. Once these same scientists developed and patented a process for stabilizing the Acemannan molecule, the well established healing properties of fresh Aloe vera gel could be formulated into powerful and safe hydrogels. Alovéa SOOTHE harnesses the purest part of the aloe plant, the inner leaf gel, infused with a potent concentration of Acemannan, a bioactive compound that supports healthy skin structure and function.

Whether your skin needs relief from chapping, irritation, dryness, sun overexposure or simply looking to support naturally radiant complexion, Alovéa SOOTHE delivers hydration, comfort, and healthy skin restoration with every application. Fast absorbing and lightweight, this soothing gel is designed for all skin types, offering a clean, botanical solution without harsh additives.
