NEXT LEVEL HYDRATION
+ WORKOUT RECOVERY OPTIMIZATION

Alovéa EDGE is an advanced hydration and performance formula designed to fuel your body without the sugar crash. This comprehensive blend of electrolytes, amino acids, and plant-based compounds works to rapidly replenish fluids and essential minerals at the cellular level, supporting optimal hydration, endurance, and whole-body performance.*

With key electrolytes like sodium, potassium, magnesium, and calcium, EDGE helps maintain fluid balance, prevent dehydration, and enhance absorption. This makes it ideal for daily hydration, intense workouts, or recovery. Powered by L-Citrulline, Taurine, and Glycine, it also supports nitric oxide production, improved blood flow, sustained energy, and reduced fatigue, without stimulants or unwanted spikes and crashes.*

Beyond hydration and performance, Alovéa EDGE delivers targeted recovery and wellness support. Its antioxidant blend, featuring tart cherry, helps combat oxidative stress, reduce exercise-induced inflammation, and promote faster recovery and joint comfort.* Alovéa AE™, our exclusive acemannan extract from organic aloe inner leaf gel, supports immune health and cellular hydration, while trace minerals from sources like Himalayan salt and red algae help restore essential nutrients depleted during activity. Magnesium and calcium support proper muscle function, while amino acids aid recovery and help reduce soreness.*

With a clean, refreshing natural watermelon flavor and absolutely no artificial flavors, colors, sweeteners, or added sugars, EDGE delivers a smooth, effective hydration experience that supports performance, recovery, and overall wellness in one formula.*
